Why FLP?

»» Get the skills that employers say matter

The CGMA Finance Leadership Programme will teach you the skills that 2,000 finance teams have identified as being critical for your career.

»» Finance professionals created it for finance professionals

You can apply what you learn to the larger business context right away, with all topics taught through scenarios, interactive exercises and business simulation. Written by authors with years of firsthand professional experience in finance and business, the courses are also developed and backed by AICPA and CIMA, the world's two largest and influential accounting and finance associations.

»» Learn in your own time, at your own pace

Unlike traditional programmes, the CGMA Finance Leadership Programme was designed from scratch for working professionals. Everything is online – including most of the exams. You can study when you want, wherever you are, and even learn the topics in whichever order you like.

»» Build on your existing knowledge

The CGMA Finance Leadership Programme builds on your background.

»» Enjoy the freedom of continuous assessments.

»» Complete the qualification at your own pace, accomplish the qualification faster

»» Save on your course fee

How does the CGMA[®] Finance Leadership Program compare with the self-directed learning and assessment route to the CIMA[®] Professional Qualification?

Choose between	Self-directed learning and assessment	Guided learning and assessment: The CGMA Finance Leadership Program (FLP)
Standards	Both routes are founded on the CGMA Competency Framework. They use the same syllabus, teach the same nine competency areas, test the same material and require the same level of proficiency and experience.
Learning methods	Learning is self-directed by learners who can choose from various study methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With a tuition provider (in classroom or online) • With official CIMA textbooks and materials • Online and distance learning 	Learning is fully guided through the CGMA FLP digital platform: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Entirely online • Self-paced digital environment • Provides all learning materials needed to complete the qualification, including exam prep courses
Assessment	Objective Tests <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nine 90-minute computer-based exams, taken on-demand at a Pearson Vue testing centre or online 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning and assessment happen simultaneously • Multiple-choice questions and open-text Business Simulation Assignments are incorporated into online learning materials • Learners skip material they already know via pre-assessments
Case study exams	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three three-hour exams at each level of the qualification that learners can take during four windows per year, either at a Pearson Vue testing centre or online.
Progress tracking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning progress and performance tracking available 24/7 through Study Planner • Objective Test and Case Study Exam results available 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning progress and performance tracking available 24/7 on embedded Dashboard • Track the pace to expected exam date using the Weekly Goal tool on the Dashboard • Freely view case study exam results, along with newly acquired skill sets and competencies through My Account on the learning platform
Practical experience requirement (PER)	Both routes require learners to log at least three years of verified, relevant, work-based experience in the course of completing the Professional Qualification. This requirement ensures their mastery of real-world accounting, finance and business skills.
Award	After completing either route, learners become CIMA members and are awarded the use of CIMA designatory letters (ACMA or FCMA), as well as the CGMA designation.

Endorsements from CIMA

“Learning in today’s environment has taken a quantum leap into the digital space and leading in the professional accounting realm is the CGMA Finance Leadership Program (FLP) offered by the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants, the unified voice of CIMA and AICPA. It is an alternative way of studying for the CIMA Professional Qualification, all entirely online.

We are proud to have Wisdom Business Academy as our partner to provide you the relevant support as you work towards being a CIMA qualified professional and earn your CGMA designation. Because CGMA FLP provides exposure to ‘real-world’ scenarios throughout the program, it will help accelerate your transition into the workplace and to hit the ground running.”

“We are delighted to work with Wisdom Business Academy, Sri Lanka’s largest CIMA Registered Tuition Provider, to provide the CGMA Finance Leadership Program (FLP) to our Sri Lankan students. You will have a unique online learning experience as you use this new platform to study for the CIMA Professional Qualification. You will be assessed as you learn and after completing each level, you will sit for the case study exam.

As our CGMA FLP partner, Wisdom will assist CIMA students with extra support such as coaching, mentoring and exam techniques for the case study exams. Upon successful completion of CGMA FLP and after gaining relevant work experience, you will become a CIMA member and earn the CGMA designation as well. You will have the technical, leadership, business, people and digital skills that employers need today and in the future.”
